Welcome to Italy and Milan located in the region of Lombardy. Milan is Italy’s economic powerhouse, a bustling city of finance and industry, media empires and fashion houses. Milan has an impressive cultural heritage, and its historic center has some of the most beautiful and varied buildings in all of Italy. We will start our “Magical Vistas Tour” in Piazza Duomo with Europe’s third largest church as its centerpiece. We will visit inside and you can ride an elevator up to the rooftop terrace for a breathtaking Vista of Milan and its surroundings. You may even get a glimpse of the snow-covered Alps. This area is perfect for walking and browsing elegant shops with a stop for a Campari spritz and some major people-watching inside the Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II. This breathtaking glass-domed arcade is a symbol of Milan. We will explore the area and then sit down for a delicious dinner of regional specialties. (D) Moderate

We will visit the town of Como, known for its silk production. We will then board a ferry for Bellagio, self-proclaimed “Pearl of the Lake”. You will have plenty of time to immerse yourself in this beautiful setting. We will return to Milan for the evening and will enjoy dinner in the Naviglio Grande or Canal District. (B) (D) Moderate

Milan has so much to offer, so today will be your day to spend as you like. Many people feel that they cannot visit Milan without seeing Leonardo’s Last Supper. You can take a foodie tour. There are also several day trips from Milan that you may want to check out. The cities of Turin, Verona, and Lugano, Switzerland are a train ride away. (B)

Day 4 – The Stunning Vistas of the Italian Riviera – Friday, October 8, 2027

We will say farewell to the big city and head south passing through Northwest Italy and the fertile plains of the Piedmont region where you will see miles of rice fields growing that famous arborio rice used for Risotto, a famous regional dish. We will pass close to Genoa, hometown of Christopher Columbus. Our destination is the region of Liguria and another famous area of Italy, the Italian Riviera.

The seaside village of Sestri Levante will be our home for the next two nights. The Hotel Vis a'Vis enjoys a stunning, panoramic view of the blue-green Mediterranean. You will love the comfort and elegance of this hotel, but the mesmerizing Vista will be what makes you never want to leave. You will have access to a relaxing pool and fitness center with a Sauna and massage room. Sestri Levante is a typical European resort town, and you will find many shops and restaurants. You will enjoy strolling along the beach and exploring the town. You will have time to settle in before we meet on the hotel terrace to experience that magnificent view followed by a walk-through town and dinner. Later, do not miss the chance to enjoy a nightcap with those amazing views from the hotel terrace bar. Salute! (B) (D) Moderate

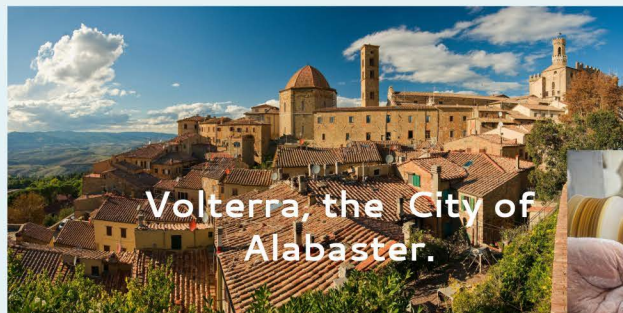

Day 5 – La Dolce Far Niente (The sweetness of doing nothing) – Saturday, October 9, 2027

Today you will have the entire day for your own pursuits. You can stay in Sestri Levante and enjoy all the amenities of the Vis a' Vis hotel or visit one of the private beaches in town. You can take a boat ride to Portofino, the playground of the rich and famous. You could even visit Genoa, about an hour train ride away.

One of the most popular day trips in the region is the Cinque Terre, a string of five path-connected villages along the Mediterranean Sea. The tiny fishing villages cling to the seaside cliffs overlooking the breaking waters below. These villages are full of simple charm and natural beauty. Each has a personality of their own as well. You can visit all five villages by train, boat or by hiking the paths. The newly reopened path between the villages of Riomaggiore and Manarola is called the Via dell' Amore. Vernazza is known as the jewel of the Cinque Terre. Corniglia sits high on the cliff and has magnificent views. Monterosso al Mare has a wonderful beach that you can enjoy.

Also, do not forget that dining in Italy is one of life's great pleasures. It takes on a whole new meaning here along this part of the coast. Fishing has been the lifeblood of the area residents for centuries. You can count on enjoying a good seafood dinner every night in this area with seafood fresh off the boat. Pesto is also a local product and is used on many dishes. Focaccia bread is another local delicacy. There are even some good wines made here along the coast. All these products are available at little shops throughout the area. (B) Light to Strenuous, your choice.

Volterra, the City of Alabaster.

Medieval Streets and Buildings.

Day 6 – Volterra, a Hidden Tuscan Treasure & the Umbrian Hill Town of Orvieto – Sunday, October 10, 2027

This morning we will travel into the beloved region of Tuscany for a visit to Volterra, an ancient Etruscan city that is just beautiful. We will wander through its medieval lanes and learn about its 3000-year-old history. Volterra is famous for its work in alabaster, a translucent stone found locally. Volterra occupies a stunning location surrounded by Vistas of heavenly landscapes.

Then we will head further south to the region of Umbria and the town of Orvieto. It sits majestically atop an outcrop of volcanic tufa stone (what a Vista!) with thousands of caves underneath the city, dug out during Etruscan, Medieval and Renaissance times. Orvieto was once an important Etruscan city. Today it is famous for one of Italy's most beautiful Gothic cathedrals with a miracle behind its construction, and a delicious white wine, Orvieto Classico. Also, the Vistas from its 1000 ft. high perch of the surrounding rolling hills is astounding.

Orvieto is not a large village but has plenty of pretty, winding lanes filled with wonderful shops to explore. The region of Umbria is incredibly well-known for its rich culinary traditions. You will find salami and prosciutto from local producers that are considered among the best in Italy. Olive Oil, chocolate and a thick rustic pasta called Pici are all delicious. Shops and trattorias are filled with these delights. We will take some time to get acquainted with Orvieto before we sit down for our dinner at the Trattoria Tipica Etrusca, which specializes in Etruscan dishes and hides its own secret underground. Orvieto's Glittering Duomo

Stunning Sorrento and its Famous Limoncello.

Day 7 – Southern Italy and the Sorrentine Peninsula – Monday, October 11, 2027

You will have some time this morning to enjoy more of Orvieto. We will visit inside the Orvieto Duomo, 300 years in construction, with its San Brizio Chapel covered in frescos by Luca Signorelli.

We will then leave the Green Heart of Italy and move into Southern Italy. The Divine Coast south of Naples is truly memorable. Here mountains erupt from the Mediterranean and pastel-hued villages cling to their sides. This area is filled with dazzling antiquities like Pompeii, breathtaking natural wonders and magical Vistas everywhere you look.

We will spend 3 days in this picturesque region with the town of Sorrento as our base. This lovely village is known for its many orange and lemon groves, which you will see everywhere. You will find panoramic sea views from many points in town that include the ever-present active volcano, Mount Vesuvius.

We will explore Sorrento and its narrow Roman-grid streets. We will then get acquainted with one of its most deep-rooted traditions, the cultivation of lemons. La Limonaia is a green and peaceful oasis in the middle of Sorrento. You will have a guided tour of its lush lemon grove to learn about the typical cultivation techniques. Day 10 – Ancient Pompeii and Bella Napoli! – Thursday, October 14, 2027

When Mount Vesuvius erupted in AD 79, the lively port city of Pompeii was perfectly preserved by the volcano's ashes. Pompeii has amazed visitors since its discovery in the 18th century. Exquisite mosaics and wall paintings among the ruins of theaters, shops, homes and temples offer total immersion into the ancient Roman world. We will visit the site with a local archeologist guide and enjoy a tour throughout the excavations.

We are not far from our final stop on this trip, Bella Napoli. We will step into gritty Naples with its vibrant street life. PHYSICAL DEMANDS:

Prepare for a physically demanding tour. This tour is more moderate than most and will only have a few days that are considered strenuous. Age is not a concern so long as you are physically fit, a good walker, and able to stand for extended periods of time and climb lots of hills and stairs. All the above could be done in all sorts of weather and temperatures. You are required to load and unload your bags into the van, and to carry your bag to your room. This sometimes could be a short distance from the hotel. Sightseeing can cover anywhere from 1-5 miles of walking, sometimes over uneven surfaces. Plan to get in shape before you head to Italy.

ACTIVITY & WALKING KEY:

LIGHT = 2-4 miles of mostly level walking (some cobblestones) throughout the day.

MODERATE = 2-6 miles walking throughout the day with some hills and stairs.

STRENUOUS = 2-8 miles walking throughout the day with a lot of hills, stairs, or uneven terrain.

VERY STRENUOUS = Everything above and beyond! Mamma mia!
